

AAA Retail Groups – COVID-19 Travel Protocol Policy

*This policy can be updated at any time based on changes to federal and state mandates

At check-in for a AAA Retail Group Trip all travelers will be required to provide proof of a negative COVID-19 test result within 72-hours of travel OR proof of being fully vaccinated as defined by the CDC. The CDC considers a person to be fully vaccinated two weeks after receiving the last recommended dose of vaccine. Failure to provide this proof will result in denied boarding and no refunds will be issued. Travel Insurance is highly recommended. Coverage is subject to restrictions. Please discuss options with your Travel Advisor.

Healthy and Safety Protocol during trip:

- AAA Retail Group Trips will operate with reduced capacity to allow for travelers to maintain social distancing while on the motorcoach
- Social distance protocol will be enforced at all times on the tour
- Face coverings will be required to be worn (covering mouth and nose) at all times on the motorcoach and as required at attractions, dining establishments, and accommodations
- Travelers will be asked to monitor their health throughout the tour by completing and submitting a daily wellness check prior to beginning the trip each day
- Temperatures will be checked for all travelers prior to beginning the trip each day

Should a traveler not pass the daily wellness or temperature check, they will not be permitted to continue with trip. AAA will assist the traveler with contacting family, securing accommodation arrangements, and arranging alternate transportation home; however, AAA will not be responsible for any associated costs. No refunds will be issued for missed days of the trip. Travel Insurance is highly recommended. Coverage is subject to restrictions. Please discuss options with your Travel Advisor.

All travelers must continue to fill out the state's Traveler Health Form as well as adhere to core COVID safety guidelines as issued by the state and federal authorities.

Traveler agrees that as a condition of travel they will adhere to the guidelines provided by AAA Western & Central New York which are based on requirements of CDC COVID 19 guidance unless there is a more stringent level of restriction required in the location of the travel destination or any venue which is part of the tour agenda.
